

Integrating Arts and Humanities into K-12 Classrooms

July 23, 2012 - GRREC Training Facility
(230 Technology Way, Bowling Green)
(wksp # 076-12)

Join us for this one-day conference targeting resources and strategies to help schools and teachers successfully integrate arts and humanities content into their curriculum and instructional practices. Begin the day with a Chautauqua presentation of Henry Clay by George McGee with a discussion of ways to use a dramatic presentation for teaching content and integrating arts and humanities. Breakout sessions throughout the day will focus on the different strands in KDE's Program Review for Arts and Humanities.
